Move over Joniel Foster – you have competition for the smartest girl in the CHS class of 1956. Ann is Vice President of T. K. Wolf Inc. has a doctorate in psychology, sociology and philosophy from the University of Pennsylvania. She served as a professor and administrator at a number of universities including the University of Pennsylvania, Penn State University and Goddard College, teaching courses in the social sciences and Native American Studies. Her cross-cultural research has been reported in professional journals, books, and academic presentations regionally, nationally and internationally.

Ann says she was painfully shy in high school but has vivid memories of her Central High days. She remembers Miss Blaylock in tears laughing at the class antics of Gretchen Hotz in music theory and harmony, nearly drowning Dotty Westby in a swimmer’s carry in Life Saving class, David Robbins leapfrogging over parking meters after Opera Club rehearsals, Mike Richardson wearing dress shirts to school—always!

Ann and fellow classmate Gary Martin were married soon after college. They had three children. Her son passed away a few years prior to Gary’s passing on. She has six grandchildren. Ann remarried, had a fourth child, and is now instrumental in the formation of T.K. Wolf Inc., a state of the art outpatient counseling service specializing in alcohol and drug addition. They are now experiencing an 80% success rate. Did you know that the “Betty Ford Foundation” experiences only a 15% success rate? No way is Ann even thinking of retiring. She loves her work! Ann says she never planned to return to Oklahoma but came back in 1990 right after her father died and her mother was diagnosed with cancer and she has become actively involved in the Tulsa community. She is a member of the Elders Council of the American Indian Chamber of Commerce of Oklahoma, Tulsa Chapter, and the Board of Directors of Tulsa Metropolitan Ministry, as well as the Mental Health Association in Tulsa.

Having traveled to all 50 states and 16 countries, she still enjoys traveling and the family story is “Don’t give Ann a full tank of gas!” While she hasn’t logged many hours, she enjoys flying immensely and still hopes to obtain a pilot’s license some day. SEE YA AT THE NEXT REUNION ANN!
